

THE CLIMAX.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 6, 1888.

Are you for or against the city bonds?

Primary election for Constable of Richmond precinct Saturday.

Billy Devore, Jr., is baggage agent at the depot; succeeded Mr. Joe Carr.

The strawberry supper on "the Hill" Tuesday night realized about $40.

Mr. W. R. Lecher's horse Longhite won at Latonia, Thursday.

The house which Mr. Crow bought for $5,000, belonged to Mr. Wm. Arnold.

As we go to press, people are gathering at the Court-house to hear Sam Jones.

On County Court Day P. M. Pope sold eight Deering All Steel Harvesting Machines.

Mr. S. A. Deatherage found his lost horse noticed in last week's CLIMAX. It was in Garrard county.

The surveying crops for the new railroad will be in the county within the next few days, so we hear.

Mrs. Ann Decker was found dead in the road in Rockcastle county, Monday, through the head.

Mr. S. A. Deatherage sold on Monday to Messrs R. P. Fox & Son an excellent pair of horses for $375.

Mr. Jesse L. Smith offers the Gem. Trillium farm of 105 acres two miles from town on the Irvine place for sale.

Mrs. Dr. Blanton will entertain on Monday evening in honor of the Alumni Association of the University.

Mr. Joe Carr has succeeded Mr. Thompson as book-keeper at the K. C. depot, this place, and will make a good one.

Stockton & Willis are the only merchants in Richmond who have a carpet on the floor. They are otherwise nicely fixed up.

Mr. Joe Boggs, Jr., found at an Indian mound on his father's farm a silver Spanish coin dated 1725. Did the Indian own it?

The drama of "Ten Nights in a Barroom" was presented in a creditable manner by local colored talent at Rice's Hall, Monday night.

The Tom Emby from this county, who married the Georgia electric woman at Memphis, two weeks ago, was a son of the late Tom Emby the race-horse man.

The Lexington parties having failed to furnish the $20,000 bribe on time for Mr. Forman's house, Mr. Sam Rice undertook the job and rolled them out on short notice.

A semi-professional nine from Louisville will play against a Richmond nine with four professionals on the campus, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, of next week.

Mr. T. B. Ayres is announced in this issue of THE CLIMAX as a candidate for Constable. He is capable of making an excellent officer. Primary election, Saturday, June 9th.

The city officers elected on Saturday were: Mayor, J. S. Collins; Councilmen, 1st ward, J. S. Collins; 2nd ward, Sam Rice; 3rd ward, W. R. Smith; 4th ward, J. W. Caperton. City Judge, H. C. Rice.

Mr. W. H. Thompson, the excellent book-keeper at the freight depot, this place, left for Paducah, last week, where he has taken charge of the K. C. office. His family will follow next week.

Garritt Ahead.

Last week THE CLIMAX announced that a woman with eleven children had sued for a divorce in Louisville. We are told that a woman in Garrard county with fourteen living children and seven grand children has sued for a divorce.

Court Day.

Z. E. Bush, auctioneer reports seventy-five head of cattle on the market, about one-half of them, disposed of at 23¢ per head; 167 head of sheep 23¢ per head; 1 pair of good live hounds 3 inch males sold for $375. Plug horse trade dull. Fair crowd. Dull day.

Elliot Institute.

The commencement of Elliot Institute will occur to-morrow evening, beginning at 7 o'clock. Address by Rev. G. Bernot, of Simpsonville. An entertainment by the music class and primary department will follow, to be concluded with a strawberry supper. A large attendance is expected.

School Trustees.

The election for public school trustees for Richmond, on last Saturday, resulted in the selection of Messrs. Ed Rowland, George W. Pickels and John Taylor. Mr. Taylor receiving the highest number of votes will serve three years. Mr. Pickels getting the next highest will serve two years, and Mr. Rowland one year.

Big Increase.

Six years ago, Mr. H. L. Todd was in Texas and swapped two pounds to a section of land—640 acres—and gave $100 to boot. On Monday he received a letter offering him $10 per acre for it. He will leave for Texas, within the next few days, as his agent advised him to hold for a higher figure.

Kirkville Fair.

The time for holding the Kirkville Fair has been changed, and it will occur, this year, on Friday and Saturday, July 27th and 28th. Horses and mules but no cattle, sheep and hogs will be shown. Particulars as to ladies work, etc., will be given further along. The usual big dinners will be spread both days. A liberal list of remittals will be given.

Beres College.

The commencement of Beres College will take place on Wednesday, June 20th, and the usual five or six thousand will be present. The programme is as follows: Friday, June 15th, 7:30 p. m., anniversary of Literary Societies; Sunday, June 17th, Baccalaureate sermon, 11 a. m., Rev. E. H. Fairchild; Monday, June 18th, address before the Y. M. C. A., Prof. H. A. Ford, Detroit, Mich.; Tuesday, June 19th, address before the Literary Societies, Bishop C. C. Penick, Louisville; Wednesday, June 20th, Commencement Day. Forenoon exercises begin at 9:30 a. m. Principal address by Geo. F. Hays, D. D., Cincinnati.

PERSONAL.

Lightning struck an oak tree in Mr. N. B. Terrell's woods, near the Fair Grounds. The top of the tree, for thirty feet down was not injured, but from that point to the ground the tree was torn into thousands of pieces, leaving a stump twenty feet high, but split open into the ground. The top slowly dropped down to the side of the stump, and now stands there. Mr. Terrell says he has had five wagon loads of fragments hauled away.

Common Pleas Court.

Judge Scott is rapidly wiping out the docket of the Common Pleas Court with the following jury list: Joe Gentry, Brutus White, J. B. Parkes, W. H. Bennett, R. L. Gentry, T. J. Curtis, R. F. Patton, Isaac Forbes, J. B. Butler, John W. Fitzpatrick, S. L. Hugely, Jesse Bondiss, T. S. Burman, H. H. Colyer, W. W. Baxter, Wm. Green, Wm. McClure, Wm. Thomas, C. C. Christman, I. N. Scudder, J. W. Emory, Robt. Duerson, Clifton Burzill, Hiram Jett, L. E. Francis, H. C. Broadbent, R. P. Fox, W. O. Chennault, B. C. Hackett.

Your Eyes.

Dr. G. Goldstein, the well-known oculist is here, at the Garrett House. He has made several visits to Richmond, heretofore, and gives satisfaction. He has practiced his profession for years, and has the reputation of being one of the best in the state. The glasses he uses are the best. They give a clear sight and are healthy for the eyes. The doctor relieves the eyes of painful sensations which are caused from abnormal refraction or a complication of weakness of the optic nerve and muscles, and brings them again to a healthy state. Parties suffering with neuralgia of the eyes and head would do well to call and see him.

Central University.

Baccalaureate sermon Sunday morning, 11 o'clock at College chapel, by Rev. Dr. Keedy, of Cincinnati; sermon before the Y. M. C. A. Sunday night at 8 o'clock, by First Presbyterian Church by Rev. Dr. Bachman, Chattanooga; address before the Literary societies, Monday night, by Hon. A. E. Richards, of Louisville; meeting of Board of Curators Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock, at office of Chancellor; class day exercises at 10 o'clock; annual address before the Alumni Association by Mr. J. A. Sullivan, at 4 p. m.; Tuesday, Tuesday night, annual contest for best speakers' medal. Commencement Wednesday.

Estill Springs.

This long known and reputable watering resort is now being thoroughly repaired and refitted, within and without, and furnished in modern style, with entirely new furniture and appointments. Will be open for visitors June 15th, 1888. Special passenger rates will be made from Cincinnati, Louisville, Lexington and between points, by rail to Richmond, and thence by easy stages, 20 miles over well graded road to the Springs. The house-keeping will be in charge of an accomplished hostess and Blue-grass housewife, Mrs. W. L. Davis, of Bourbon county, who will have in employ several noted family cooks from the same county. Means for hearty recreation provided. A bowling alley, billiard room, nice boats on the Kentucky River that skirts the property, a long clear sheet of water, with smooth clean sandy bed, for swimming. Several roads for driving, and most delightful shady woods and fields, suitable for both rooms on the premises. With neat, new clean beds and linen, furniture of good class, tasteful parlors, dining room 28x72 feet, newly fitted and furnished, and Mrs. Davis to make everybody satisfied with her surprising cuisine and gentle manners, the proprietors expect to make Estill Springs the most delightful as it is the most healthful resort in the Mississippi valley. Daily mail. Stage meets all daily trains. Livery furnished at reasonable rates. Board by the day, $2.50; board by the week, $12.50; board by the 4 weeks, $40. For further particulars address, Estill Springs Company, Irvine, Ky.

M. F. L. Commencement.

The Christian church was crowded Sunday morning the occasion being the baccalaureate sermon of Madison Female Institute. President William, presided over the occasion and Rev. Mr. Williams of the Baptist church led in prayer. President Logan of Central University read the 19th Psalm, and Rev. Dr. Forman of the Presbyterian church offered prayer. These exercises were interspersed with music by the choir composed of Miss Campbell, Mrs. T. S. Moberley, Mr. F. H. Adair, Mr. W. L. Arnold, Col. T. S. Moberley, Miss Minnie Smith presided at the organ.

Prof. Hagerman of the Institute preached the baccalaureate sermon from the 9th chapter of Acts, 6th verse, and version. Rev. Dr. Scott of the Presbyterian church, Galveston, Texas, pronounced the benediction.

The exhibition of the art class was held in the chapel on Monday, and attracted great numbers of people. A complete list of the pictures is presented on the fourth page of THE CLIMAX, this issue.

Tuesday the commencement occurred in the Christian church, the seating capacity of which was greatly taxed. Rev. J. Z. Tyler, of Central Christian church, Cincinnati, delivered the address to the graduates, and President Williams delivered the diploma.

A quartette of voices—Miss Campbell, Miss Kyle, Mr. Adair and Mr. Florida made the music.

After the commencement exercises an open air reception was given on the Institute grounds.

The graduates were four: Miss Minnie Croucher and Miss Lizzie Turner, of Richmond; Miss Nannie Burgess of Mason county; Miss Stella Campbell, of Mississippi.

MATRIMONIAL.

Mr. Arch Doty and Miss Lizzie Francis were married on Thursday evening, May 31st, 1888, at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. J. W. Francis, near Kingston, Madison county, Ky. Rev. E. Forman, D. D., officiating.

Mr. Thomas Chennault, Blackwell, of Leck Summit, Mo., formerly of Richmond, Ky., and Miss S. Morgan Blackwell, of Lebanon, Ky., were married on the 22d of May. The bride has visited and is a cousin of Mrs. Dr. T. J. Taylor of Richmond, and is a cousin of the groom.

Thin Column.

Mr. Downards is a merchant at Marengo, Iowa. That's the way Ward's ducks went, wasn't it?

A stranger asked me, a day or two ago, if it was the intention of the proposed railroad to run up to "Brest-hill" county.

"Ma, what you got them old drakes here for, any how? They eat more corn than a pig, and they ain't laid nary egg yet."

The Texas Siftings once said that the climate of that State was such that the State had no more spring than an oxcart, and the same can be said of Kentucky the present year.

As the Distillers Association at Louisville, last week, decided on making only half a crop of whiskey, the Gentrys, we hope no one will hereafter undertake to get more than half drunk.

Thomas Carey was on last Thursday sentenced to fifty years in the Illinois penitentiary for killing a Chinaman in Chicago. The fellow went car-ey on any more devils for half a century.

Small Boy—"I dun a tree, this mornin', and—"

Teacher—"You did what?"

Small Boy—"I dun."

Teacher—"Did what?"

Small Boy—"I dun."

Teacher—"No, you didn't."

Old Lady—"What's the matter with the baby?"

Mother—"Gave it too much paragon."

Old Lady—"Why, law me, what made you give it a pair of gorics—why, one would a bin thousands and thousands."

Something has grabbed Bruce Champ of late, and grabbed him bad. In his Thursday's issue the Post-News he announced that Gen. Phil Sheridan was dead. In reporting the Lexington Democratic Convention, he named only two delegates from the State at large, and neither of them was one of the four really elected.

A little girl was asked to take a newspaper to the post-office. "Yes, but it's got a 2-cent stamp on it," she observed, "and a one-cent stamp is what it should have."

She was told that the one-cent stamp was convenient, and a 2-cent stamp would carry it. "Yes, but the 2-cent stamp will carry it by the place where you want it to stop," she earnestly exclaimed.

Going West.

The general interest that has been taken in the opening of the Montana Indian Reservation is shown by the large numbers of people who have already gone to Great Falls to investigate the mineral and agricultural resources of excursion route announced by C. H. Warren, Gen. Pass. Agent of the St. Paul, Minneapolis & Manitoba Railway, makes the expense of exploring this country merely nominal, and will undoubtedly result in a still larger number following.

A Case of Deafness Cured.

Office of Shaw & Baskin's, Wholesale Notion House, Toledo, O., Dec. 11, 1879.

F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O.—Dear Sirs: About three months ago, noticing a letter addressed to you in the Bee from Gen. Stern in reference to the cure of his son by the use of Hall's Catarrh Cure, we were induced to commence the use of it for our daughter Nellie, now fourteen years old, who has been suffering from catarrh for about eight years, during which time she has been treated by one of the best physicians in the city. We have also tried the use of almost all the known remedies for catarrh, with no success, but temporary relief. Many nights we have laid awake to hold her mouth open to keep her from strangling. Her hearing had also become affected. These words, so far as they denote separation and estrangement, should be obsolete. In the councils of the nation, and in the business of the country, they no longer mean reproach and antagonism. Even the soldiers who fought for the North and for the South are restored to fraternity and unity. This fraternity and unity is taught and enjoyed by our churches. When shall she herself be united with all the added strength and usefulness that harmony and union insure.

Rev. L. G. Barbour, D. D., has returned from Philadelphia in which city the two branches of the Presbyterian church assembled. Dr. Barbour does not see any prospect of immediate re-union of the Northern and Southern branches. In fact he does not believe it to be for the good of the churches that they should unite. There are questions affecting the Southern church that do not reach the Northern church, yet, were they united, the Northern church would have a large voting majority, and impose certain conditions on the Southern church which the Northern church would not like imposed upon it. Were the positions of the two bodies exchanged. Dr. Barbour was delighted with the cordial reception tendered the delegates by the people of Philadelphia; and had the pleasure of meeting and shaking hands with the President and Mrs. Cleveland. He could not refrain from imparting a sort of Davy Crockett advice to Mr. Cleveland, as he grasped his hand—"You're right; go ahead."
